Title: Save Your Home - Avoid Scams!!!

When: Wed, Jul 18, 2012 - Wed, Jul 18, 2012 06:00PM - 08:00PM

Where: Lakeside CDC- 6636 N Clark Street - Chicago

Category: Education & Training

Description

Lakeside CDC will host a foreclosure prevention seminar for homeowners and renters concerned about losing their homes due to foreclosure.

At this FREE event, learn about the foreclosure process in Illinois, get information on strategies for preventing foreclosure, and meet with a housing counselor to review your situation and get scheduled for 1x1 counseling. We will also talk about mortgage modification scams and how to protect yourself from predatory service providers.

Homeowners seeking counseling help should plan to bring the following documents:

- Most recent mortgage statements for both first and second mortgage, if applicable
- Two most recent pay stubs
- Two most recent bank statements
- Homeowners' insurance bill or Declaration Page
- Proof/ Documentation of income from any other sources such as alimony, child support (judgment letter), or Social Security income (award letter)
- Account balances and monthly payments on all other debts including: homeowner association/ condo fees, credit cards, student or car loans, child support and alimony
- Unemployment award letter, if applicable
- Most recent profit-loss statement, if you are self-employed
- If you have rental income, you must also bring:
 - Signed lease agreement(s); and
 - Rent receipt(s) or signed letter(s) from occupants(s) confirming rent amount

- Real estate tax bill
- Most recent tax return (with all schedules and W-2's)
- Most recent utility bills
- Any documents received from, or filed in, the Circuit Court of Cook County (such as Foreclosure Summons and Complaint)

For more information, please call (773) 381-5253 or email info@lakesidecdc.org.
