

subject to these requirements. However, our directors and executive officers provide the equivalent of Section 16(a) reports to us, and we make them available on our website at www.freddiemac.com within the same time frames required for Section 16(a) reports. Based solely on a review of such reports, we believe that during 2007, our directors and executive officers complied with such reporting obligations.

STOCKHOLDER PROPOSALS AND NOMINATIONS FOR NEXT ANNUAL MEETING OF STOCKHOLDERS

To be considered for inclusion in the next proxy statement, stockholder proposals must be submitted in writing to the Corporate Secretary, Freddie Mac, 8200 Jones Branch Drive, McLean, Virginia 22102 no later than December 30, 2008. The written notice must be accompanied by specific information regarding the proposal and the interest of the stockholder. If the stockholder does not comply with the requirements as set forth in applicable SEC rules and regulations, the chair of the next annual meeting may declare the proposal not properly brought before the meeting.

In order for business not included in the proxy statement for the 2009 annual meeting to be brought before the meeting by a stockholder, the stockholder must, pursuant to our bylaws, give timely written notice to the Corporate Secretary, Freddie Mac, 8200 Jones Branch Drive, McLean, Virginia 22102. To be timely, the Corporate Secretary must receive written notice of the proposal no fewer than 75 days prior to the 2009 annual meeting. If fewer than 90 days' notice or prior public disclosure of the 2009 annual meeting is given or made to the stockholders, to be timely, notice by the stockholder must be received no later than the close of business on the 15th day following the day on which such notice of the date of the annual meeting was mailed or such public disclosure was made, whichever first occurs. The written notice must include or be accompanied by a brief description of the proposal, the reasons for bringing the proposal before the annual meeting, the stockholder's name and address, any material interest of the stockholder in the proposal and documentation to verify the class and number of shares beneficially owned by the stockholder. If a stockholder does not comply with our bylaws, the chair of the annual meeting may declare the proposal defective and it will be disregarded.

Stockholder nominations of candidates for election as directors must be submitted in writing to the Corporate Secretary, Freddie Mac, 8200 Jones Branch Drive, McLean, Virginia 22102 by the same deadlines as for stockholder proposals to be introduced from the floor of the 2009 annual meeting. The written notice must include (i) the name, age, business address and residential address of the nominee, (ii) the principal occupation or employment of the nominee, (iii) a description of all arrangements or understandings between the stockholder and the nominee and any other person relating to the nomination, and (iv) all other information about the nominee that would be required to be included in a proxy statement soliciting proxies for the election of directors under the rules promulgated under the Exchange Act, including a written consent from the nominee to being named in the proxy statement and to serve if elected. The stockholder also must provide his, her or its name and record address, the number of shares beneficially owned and a representation that the stockholder intends to appear in person or by proxy at the meeting to make the nomination. If the stockholder does not comply with the requirements of our bylaws, the chair of the annual meeting may declare the nomination defective and it will be disregarded.
