Freddie Mac Announces Resignation of Christina Seix From Board of Directors

Freddie Mac announced that Christina Seix has resigned from the company's board of directors. Ms. Seix, a member of the board since 1990, has been Chairman, CEO and CIO of Seix Investment Advisors, Inc., an investment management firm. Seix Investment Advisors, Inc. is being acquired by SunTrust Banks, Inc., a Freddie Mac customer.

"Chris has made numerous contributions since she joined the original board in 1990," said Richard F. Syron, Chairman and CEO of Freddie Mac. "We have benefited from her considerable talents through her service across the spectrum of the board committees."
