Drafting Due Dates

- P&I Draft Date

Footnotes

- Freddie Mac holidays, offices closed on these days.
- Federal Reserve Bank holidays, no principal or interest will be accepted or posted on these days.
- Last day to report or correct loan-level transactions for the prior calendar month's accounting cycle. All borrower activity you successfully process from the first of the month to the end of month (EOM), must be reported by EOM plus one business day, regardless of whether EOM falls on a weekend.

* Report prior to 9:00 p.m. ET on the due date.
  Ensure you report a transaction for each loan in your Freddie Mac servicing portfolio (all-in reporting) prior to 2:00 a.m. ET on the day following the P&I Determination Date.

Payoffs must be reported within two days of the payoff date. Funds are drafted on the fifth business day after the payoff date. Late reported payoff funds are drafted on the second business day after the payoff is processed. PARC and Flex loans will be drafted on the negotiated PARC/Flex day after the payoff date, as applicable.

Freddie Mac will process and settle loan modifications daily, except for the first business day of each month.

All reporting and drafting dates represent the last date for reports to be received and funds to be drafted without incurring compensatory fees. Reporting windows exist prior to these due dates.

Refer to the back of this calendar for more information.

Freddie Mac will not process data corrections on the following days:

- P&I Determination Date
- P&I Determination Date (-) 1 business day
- EOM
- EOM + 1 business day
- EOM + 2 business days
